

Jenny Beckett

Jennifer was one of the first pupils at Etonbury School and a Prefect in her last year.

Retired now after leading a varied career working as a P.A. to a Criminal Lawyer in the Temple, Secretary to Duty Solicitor for Hertfordshire Police and Secretary to a Conveyancing Solicitor.

Married to David, a retired Physicist, and now Secretary of Stotfold Bowls Club, they have five children, thirteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren. There are no idle hands in their family! One grandchild currently attends Etonbury, with four more due to attend in the near future.

Jennifer is a keen Artist, Exhibition Organizer for Stotfold Art Group, and loves quizzes, scrabble, and arts and crafts.

There have been many changes to Etonbury over the years and now with the new extensions, Jennifer looks forward to the future challenges and to being part of a team ensuring that all our students receive the best possible education
