

History

Tudors

a study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066

To understand the timeline of the Tudors.

To explore how we know about the Tudors.

To describe life on Tudor streets

To write a letter about life on Tudor streets

To explore the life of Queen Elizabeth I

Fantastic Finish/Sensational Start

Troublesome Tudors Workshop

Virtual Reality: -Death at sea: Mary Rose

English - Spymaster : First Blood by Jan Burchett

What are the features of an instruction text?

What should I include in a set of directions?

How can I make my writing as effective as possible?

What do I need to include in a TV news report?

RE

How do Christians decide how to live?

What would Jesus do?

Art/DT

Self portraits

Hans Holbein - Tudor Portraits

Create a Tudor flag

OFF WITH THEIR HEADS

PSHE

First Aid

Maths including...

Shape

Position and Direction

Decimals

Science

Living Things and Their Habitats

Skills

1. to apply scientific knowledge and understanding to grow healthy plants and explain how humans and other animals stay fit and healthy

2. to investigate the physical characteristics of the local environment and the living things in it, comparing them with those from another locality

4. to investigate the structure, function, life cycle and growth of flowering plants and how these grow and are used around the world

5. to investigate, identify and explain the benefits of micro-organisms and the harm they can cause

6. to investigate and explain how plants and animals are interdependent and are diverse and adapted to their environment as a result of evolution

Knowledge

explain the differences in the life cycles of a mammal, an amphibian, an insect and a bird describe the life process of reproduction in some plants and animals.