Who are we?

- Introduction

LAMDA

What is LAMDA?

- LAMDA is a world-class drama school.
- Offering examinations resulting in qualifications in both Speech and Drama that are recognized around the world through their Speech and Communications Board.

Syllabuses

- Communication exams – Verse & prose, reading for performance and public speaking.
- Performance exams – Acting, devising drama and mime.
- Grades

What do LAMDA lessons improve?

- Presentation skills
- Communication skills
- Self-confidence
- Ability to memorise and recall information
- Engaging in conversations
- Body language
- Voice

Who is LAMDA for?

- Everyone!
- Particular reasons why some students take LAMDA:
- Keen actors that want to polish their performance skills
- Love drama but do not necessarily want to take a drama GCSE or A Level
- Are less likely to gain high grades in mainstream subjects and want to increase their chances of getting a good college or university place. LAMDA exams gain UCAS points.
- Perform well academically but need to improve self-presentation skills and gain confidence at speaking in public. Presenting work in seminars is an increasingly important component of university education.

UCAS Points

- Grade 6 and above.
