

11 September 2020

Dear Parents / Carers

As you may be aware, students are beginning to study their GCSEs in English Literature. They are required to remember plot points and quotations. This will be difficult to do at home without copies of the texts. As a result, we strongly suggest that students purchase their own personal copy of the texts. This will allow them to use and annotate the books in lessons.

We would also suggest that students purchase a copy of the relevant CGP revision guide. The CGP guides provide excellent materials for understanding the texts and context; they also contain practice exam questions.

Should you wish, you can buy a copy of the text and CGP revision guide through the school. As an educational body we receive significant discounts meaning that we can obtain texts much cheaper than high-street and online retailers. The prices, including school discount, are as follows:

Text	Price
An Inspector Calls – CGP Text Guide	£3.00 (retail price £5.95)
An Inspector Calls – Full Text (Penguin Classics Edition)	£6.55 (retail price £9.99)
A Christmas Carol – CGP Text Guide	£3.00 (retail price £5.95)
A Christmas Carol – Full Text (Scholastic Edition)	£2.50 (retail price £4.99)
Romeo and Juliet – CGP Text Guide	£3.00 (retail price £5.95)
Romeo and Juliet – Full Text (CGP Edition)	£3.00 (retail price £5.95)
Unseen Poetry - CGP Guide	£3.00 (retail price £5.95)

If you wish to purchase a copy of the text(s) and/or revision guide your child is studying, please do so via Parentmail to the school by Wednesday 23 September. Once books are delivered to the school, your children will be informed that they can collect their copies.

Thank you for your support and should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me on iphillips@bestacademies.org.uk or your child's English Teacher.

Best wishes,

Miss Phillips
Second in English

Stotfold Road
Arlesey
Bedfordshire SG15 6XS

T 01462 730391
E etaoffice@bestacademies.org.uk
W www.etonbury.com
Principal: Mr Ian Evason