

LITFLIX

When?

Where?

What?

Why?

Saturday 6th
February
2.35pm

5Star

The Hundred Foot Journey

An Indian family emigrates to a village in the South of France to open a restaurant. A bitter feud erupts with the proprietor of a restaurant just across the road, while romance blossoms between the son of the newcomers and their rival's sous chef. Produced by Steven Spielberg and Oprah Winfrey.

Age rating: PG

Based on the 2008 novel by the same name.

Saturday 6th
February
3.55pm

5Star

Annie

Annie is the story of a plucky, red-haired girl who dreams of a life away outside of her orphanage and its tyrant, Miss Hannigan. One day Annie meets the famous billionaire, "Daddy" Warbucks, and the pair share spectacular times in the New York City of the 1930s. But Miss Hannigan and her zany, villainous colleagues are determined to spoil the fun for America's favourite orphan.

Age rating: U

Set post the Great Depression, this film is based on the Broadway Musical of the same name.

Sunday 7th
February
2.35pm

Film4

Lemony Snicket's A Series of Unfortunate Events

Three orphans are entrusted into the care of their sinister uncle, a master of disguise who intends to kill them for the family fortune. Quickly realising he is up to no good, the children flee, moving from one prospective guardian to the next - but their wily relative is never far behind.

Age rating: U

A film adaptation of the first novels in the 'A Series of Unfortunate Events' collection. These children's books are famous for their Gothic elements and cultural and literary allusions!

Sunday 7th
February
3.55pm

ITV2

Dr Seuss' The Lorax

A boy leaves his urban home in search of a real tree, and meets the reclusive industrialist who first created the city. The hermit tells the story of a grumpy forest creature who tried to stop him destroying the trees, and inspires the youngster to undo the damage that has been done.

Age rating: U

Based on Dr Seuss' novel of the same name, this story is considered a fable as it warns of the danger of destroying the natural world.

LITFLIX

When?

Where?

What?

Why?

Monday 8th
February
6.20pm

Sony
Movies

The Remains of the Day

A butler in a 1930's aristocratic household has dedicated himself to serving his master, putting duty above all else and repressing his affection for the housekeeper, who also happens to be in love with him. On the outbreak of war, the nobleman's Nazi sympathies come to light, marking a change of heart in the old servant, who looks back with misgivings about the loyalty that may have cost him dearly.

Age rating: U

Based on Kazuo Ishiguro's novel of the same name, which was nominated for the Man Booker Prize for fiction. This film adaptation was nominated for eight Academy Awards.

Programmes to watch on demand:

BBC iPlayer

His Dark Materials

In a parallel world ruled by the sinister Magisterium, a battle rages over a mysterious particle called Dust. Can orphan Lyra stop the fight from spilling over into our time? This television series is based on Philip Pullman's Young Adult novels of the same name and functions, in part, as a retelling of Milton's Paradise Lost.

Age rating: 12

BBC iPlayer

The Boy in the Dress

Based on David Walliams' best-selling children's book, with an all-star cast including Jennifer Saunders, James Buckley, David Walliams and Kate Moss, The Boy in the Dress is a celebration of creativity, difference, football and fashion.

Age rating: U